

The Ways We Learn

*Your hands made me and formed me;
Give me understanding to learn Your commands.
Psalm 119:73*

Rev. Albert Gallmon, Interim Pastor
Sis. Vivian Moore, Chair Board of Christian Education
Rev. Marilyn Taylor, Sunday School Superintendent
Janet Holman, Facilitator

October 7, 2017

9:30-11:00am

"The Ways We Learn"

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful...

Psa. 139:13-14

Seminar Goals:

- To help participants better understand their inborn, God-given characteristics of the way they learn.
- To value and appreciate the contributions of all learners regardless of their learning preferences.
- To encourage educators to enhance their teachings.

Who Can Benefit from This Seminar:

All of God's children, Sunday School teachers, parents, students sixth grade and above, church leaders, and work-place supervisors.

Description: Each learner is a unique being, created in God's image. Learning how to recognize and appreciate learning styles can help you identify the natural strengths and tendencies each individual possesses. This seminar will help you discover some positive things about yourself, your loved ones, and the ones you teach.

This seminar will explore the four Gregorc Learning Styles (how learners take in and give out information).

Date, Place, and Time:      Saturday, October 7, 2017   CFF   9:30 – 11:00am

---

Seminar Outline

Learning Styles Assessment
What Are Learning Styles
Four Combinations of Learning Styles
Contributions of Each Learning Style
Motivation for Each Learning Style
Animal School

Materials based on the work of Anthony F. Gregoric, Ph.D.
Adapted from The Way They Learn by Cynthia Tobias, M.Ed.
Modified by Janet Holman, M.Ed.